FAT PIG REPORT

A better show this week with numbers up 30% on the previous week, but no let up in demand as, once again, all buyers were firing on all cylinders. The nett end result was another lift in trade to an overall average of 122p/kg.

There is no doubt that the trade is only going one way with the major increase in public demand for sourcing British; tightening supplies and rising prices across Europe. Deadweight prices at last saw a small increase this week.

Another excellent run of top quality pigs from J H West & Son, this week reaching a top price of 142p/kg for 90kg gilts and bought by Ainsty Farm Shop. They also had a top price pen of boars at 127p/kg going to M & C Meats. R Thompson & Son and I Dodsworth both achieved over £145 per head for their bacon weight pigs, all going to T H Motson & Sons Ltd.

Sows were up another penny to average 65p/kg.
