FAT PIG REPORT

The pig trade this week can only be described as a 'flyer'. Totally against the general trend and downward movement in the deadweight trading, but the arrival of Roland Agar as an extra buyer tipped the balance and saw gilts upto 142p from Andrew Thompson to T H Motson & Sons Ltd. Mark Horsley had 3 pens over 140p to a Traves & Son Ltd and M & C Meats. Demand was strong for all weights and both boars and gilts. Bank holiday next week and then I am sure it will ab back to reality.
