FAT PIG REPORT

Sadly the trade continues to slip backwards, with the overall average down another 3/4p on the previous week. A strong pound, cheap imports, the holiday season and hot weather are all contributory factors and we have to battle through to Autumn.

Owner of the best gilts this week topped the 130p marker with a top price of 133p, going to R Thompson & Son, and also N G Brankey & Sons.

The sow trade has also fallen back, with even the best now below 60p.
